

TRUMANSBURG ROTARY MEETING MINUTES FOR April 29th, 2021

- ☞ President Peggy started the meeting by reporting that the fairgrounds tree planting was a success. Many villagers and Rotarians showed up for the planting.
- ☞ Peggy also noted that the original trees were already starting to bud.
- ☞ Durand stated that the highway cleanup went well and there were only three bags collected between Durand, Kathleen, and Mary B.
- ☞ Former Trumansburg Rotarian, now located in North Carolina, asked for our club's help with a global grant for a wheelchair project in Ecuador. A motion was made to give $500 to the project and was unanimously passed.
- ☞ Frank reported that duck race sales are going well, and we have sold over $700 worth of tickets.
- ☞ Mary G-S is going to talk to Visions FCU about being a major donor ($2000) for our golf tournament.
- ☞ Kathleen reported that we will be able to get the balloon for the tournament and now we will possibly have a ball drop prior to the tournament.
- ☞ Mary B. and Mary G-S reported that they have set up a Pay Pal account for payment for the golf tournament.
- ☞ Durand indicated that there will be a new female member in the near future and Peggy announced that Karen Small is also thinking about joining.
- ☞ Peggy talked about the Public Image Seminar she and Cindy attended and will let everyone know when the recording is available for everyone.
- ☞ Neil reported that he has started to post the duck race on our Facebook page.
- ☞ The Supermarket Sweeps winner was drawn after the meeting at the Shursave, and the winner was John Powell who is a Radiation Oncologist at Cayuga Medical Center.
- ☞ Mary Guy-Sell is working at merging websites so there will be only two for now.
- ☞ Peggy would like help on weekends to help sell duck race tickets.
- ☞ The meeting ended at 7:52.
