

TRUMANSBURG ROTARY MEETING MINUTES FOR May 6th, 2021

- ☞ President Peggy started the meeting by having Shelly show a video from a Rotary Club in Oregon on their project of building cook stoves for families in Guatemala. There are 4 BILLION people who cook on crude wood stoves in their homes. There are around 4 million deaths a year associated with these stoves. It's like smoking 3 packs of cigarettes a day. Go to Stove Team to get more details or you can open This Link to watch the video and learn how important this project is.
- ☞ The duck race tickets are going great. Tom picked up the ducks from the Greene Lions Club and separated out 1000 in numerical order. We decided that "Lucky Ducky" will be the name of our inflatable duck.
- ☞ Mary G-S reported that the golf tournament is going well but we do need hole sponsors.
- ☞ Peggy reported that the Supermarket Sweeps was a lot of fun to watch, and we made a $1576 profit.
- ☞ Tom reported that we will get pipes set for the Fire Department's Anniversary so we can hang the banner up.
- ☞ Shelly reported that Empowering Youth will give a presentation to the Youth Exchange. It is a wonderful project for youth to be involved in.
- ☞ Ana Steindler from the Lodi Library has asked to join our meeting along with her mother who is a Rotarian in Mexico. They will be joining us this coming week.
- ☞ The BBQ is set for the 15th with 280 halves ordered to meet our customers' demands.
- ☞ The meeting ended at 8:10.
